

TERM 1 WEEK 7 NEWSLETTERS

THURSDAY 14 March, 2024

What's Coming Up?

A WORD FROM THE PRINCIPAL

We are now in the second half of Term 1, with lots of exciting events happening in the next few weeks.

This week, we began our NAPLAN testing, with the first session being held yesterday. This year, Declan is our only student participating. We would like to wish Declan the best of luck as he completes the remaining NAPLAN tests. I would like to highlight that although NAPLAN can place stress on students, this is just one assessment of learning, and it is certainly not a 'one size fits all' test.

As you are now aware, Miss Rebecca Gay has been appointed in the permanent principal role. We are very excited about this and are really looking forward to having Miss Gay at our school again. At this stage, we are unsure when she will begin. But I will keep you updated as soon as I have been told.

LLAMA'S LUNCHBOX CHANGERS

Llams lunchbox Menu will be changing next week we have some new Items and there will be a small increase in the prices. The New Menu will be attached to School Bytes.

Please remember to write your child/s order on a paper bag and money is enclosed prior to arriving at school.

A lot of time is being spent writing up individual orders.

Windellama Public School

Year 6 Went to Sydney to Young Leaders Conference on the 4th March. They travelled by bus with other schools in our Network.

When we arrived, it certainly wasn't what we expected. There were kids dancing everywhere with a DJ on stage. We got to listen to and even meet a large, incredibly entertaining variety of different speakers with amazing talents such as two-time Australian memory champion Anastasia Woolmer and famous Australian ninja warrior Bryson Klein (people cheered every 2 words he said), and we have a fun time dancing with dance curriculum. My personal favourite was Matt Cosgrove, author of Macca the Alpaca and his wife Eva Amores.
